

The restaurant Steinfels was designed by Günter Specht a architect from Munich and Silvana Gutjahr a famous interior decorator. It gleams with the charm of the 70ies, with bright colours, gold and wooden tones. The modern and fresh, culinary offer, that cant be squeezed into any scheme, is influenced by pan pacific creations as well as superb Californian, Mediterranean and Asian ideas. There is nothing missing on the menu. From steaks to pasta, from sushi to modern dishes such as pizza with tuna carpaccio or new style sashimi, it's all there.

Separated by only a glass window the guests have the chance to watch how one of the finest beers in Zürich gets brewed in a good old traditional manner. The so called „Züri West Bier“! No matter if lager, pils, wheat beer or seasonal beer, every single one is a unique experience of taste.
